International Media Festival for Prevention (IMFP)

23rd World Congress on
Safety and Health at Work
Sydney 2023

The International Media Festival for Prevention is an integral part of the XXIII World Congress on Safety and Health at Work 2023.

Please complete your entry in one of the official languages of the World Congress: English, French, Spanish or German.

Deadline for submission

The closing date is 28 February 2023.

The Media Festival offers an overview of films and multimedia productions about safety and health at work from all over the world and provides an opportunity for participants to present their products to a major group of influential international safety and health professionals.

Eligibility Criteria

We welcome all media on safety and health at work produced from January 2020, for example films, documentary, animation, short films and TV spots, websites, apps, e-learning tools and social media.

Submission

There is no limit to the number of entries you may submit or the length of your productions.
All entries must be submitted using the online entry form under: mediainprevention.org

Awards

Your submission can be nominated for a prize. An International Jury will come together to determine the winners of the Media Festival. The prizes will be awarded in the presence of a large audience in the Special Media Session at the XXIII World Congress on Safety and Health 2023 in Sydney, Australia.

Cinema

All nominated and winning productions will be presented to an international audience in the Festival Cinema programme running throughout the Congress.
